

The Chinese Bill.

WASHINGTON, February 15.—Following is the full text of the bill to restrict immigration of Chinese to the United States, as it passed the Senate to-night:

Be it enacted, etc., That no master of any vessel owned in whole or in part by a citizen of the United States, or by a citizen of any foreign country, shall take on board such vessel at any port or place within the Chinese Empire, or at any other foreign port or place whatever, any number exceeding fifteen Chinese passengers, whether male or female, with the intent to bring such passengers to the United States, and leave such port or place and bring such passengers to any number exceeding fifteen on one voyage within the jurisdiction of the United States.

Sec. 2. That whenever the master or other person in charge of any vessel takes on board the same at any foreign port or place any greater number of Chinese passengers than is prescribed in the first section of this act, with intent to bring such passengers to the United States, and leave such port or place, and bring such passengers to any number exceeding fifteen on one voyage within the jurisdiction of the United States, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, for each passenger so taken on board and brought within the jurisdiction of the United States, exceeding the number of fifteen, be fined one hundred dollars, and may also be imprisoned for not exceeding six months.

Sec. 3. That the master of any vessel arriving in the United States, or of any of the Territories thereof, from any foreign place whatever, at the same time that he delivers a manifest of the cargo, and if thereby no cargo, then at the time of making report or entry of the vessel, pursuant to law, shall, in addition to the other matters required to be reported by law, deliver and report to the Collector of the district in which such vessel shall arrive, a separate list of all Chinese passengers taken on board the vessel at any foreign port or place, and of all such passengers on board the vessel at that time. Such list shall be sworn to by the master in the same manner as directed by law in relation to the manifest of cargo, and refusal or neglect of the master to comply with the provision of this section shall receive the same penalties, disabilities and forfeitures as are provided for a refusal or neglect to report and deliver a manifest of the cargo.

Sec. 4. That the amount of the several penalties imposed by the foregoing provisions shall be liens on the vessels violating those provisions, and such vessels shall be libeled therefor in any Circuit or District Court of the United States, where such vessel shall arrive.

Sec. 5. That nothing herein contained shall be held to repeal or modify any law forbidding the importation of coolies, or of females for immoral purposes, into the United States; provided, that no Consul or commercial agent of the United States, residing in any port from which any vessel taking Chinese passengers may take her departure, shall grant the certificate provided for in section 2,162 of the Revised Statutes for more than fifteen Chinese passengers on any one vessel.

Sec. 6. That this Act shall not apply to persons officially connected with the Chinese Government, or any Embassy thereof, or to persons rescued from shipwreck during the voyage of and by the vessel seeking a harbor in stress of weather within the jurisdiction of the United States, or to persons who may only seek a temporary residence for educational purposes, and who shall have a certificate from the Chinese Government for that purpose.

Sec. 7. That this Act shall take effect from and after the first day of July, 1879, and the president of the United States shall immediately on the approval of this Act give notice to the Government of China of the abrogation of articles five and six of the additional articles of the treaty of June 18, 1868, between the United States and China, proclaimed February 5, 1870, commonly called the Burlingame Treaty.
